

MEMORANDUM

DATE: May 9, 2001

TO: Members, Senate Select Committee on International Trade Policy
and State Legislation

Members, Committee on Banking, Commerce and International Trade

Interested Members of the Legislature, and Staff

Members of the public

FROM: Senator Sheila Kuehl, chair

RE: Updated hearing information

Hearing: International Trade Agreements and the Role of the State

The Senate Select Committee on International Trade Policy and State Legislation and the Committee on Banking, Commerce and International Trade will co-sponsor a hearing to examine the role of the state in international trade agreements on Wednesday, May 16, 2001. The hearing will take place in the Capitol, Room 3191, from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m.

Witnesses will include Secretary Lon Hatamiya from the Technology, Trade and Commerce Agency, Dr. Robert Stumberg from the Harrison Institute for Public Law, and David Naftzger, Committee Director for Agriculture and International Trade, from the National Conference of State Legislatures.

Please feel free to contact Anne Blackshaw, consultant to the Select Committee on International Trade Policy and State Legislation, at (916) 322-8616, or Trudi Sprague, consultant to the Committee on Banking, Commerce and International Trade, at (916) 445-6306.